Comments:

On a night when we should have had downpours we got away with it and with 100 competitors plus juniors it was a hectic night at the finish. Thanks to Clare Lowe for giving a hand. There were 6 main protagonists in the mens event over the first half of the course. Once we started to climb on the Cleveland Way, (the yellow brick road) runners started to thin into more of a line. The winner on a slippy slow course was Peter Bray a new name in the 'winners enclosure'. Well done to him. He was pursued by Paul Butler who could not quite get on terms. Paul however had the joy of leading the men's team winners in Loftus and Whitby with Esk Valley led by the returning Cameron Taylor in second. Both Petetr and Cameron are Junior Men so that bodes well for the future. In the women's event it was a familiar story over the last few years with Kay Neesam showing she is now in control of these events finishing comfortably ahead of Lucy Butt and a former winner Aly Raw. Lucy in fact is a Junior woman so that bodes well for DFR.

In the women's team event it was a well supported Thirsk & Sowerby team led by Hester Cox, that took the honours from Durham Fell Runners. It was good to see Aly & Pippa Archer competing locally again. See you all at Lockton Village best wishes Dave.
