Comments:

It was an extremely hot day with temperatures rising to 25 degrees. In these conditions this proved a very testing route. Cameron Taylor made light of the first climb going up like a train with a clear lead at the top of about 45 secs. Catherine Williamson likewise was up with the small group of chasers to Cameron and had a slight lead on Kay Neesam. In the men's race Cameron extended his lead comfortably until the last climb where Christian Holmes and Charlie Stead seemed to close a fraction. At the finish Cameron was a very convincing winner setting the new record at 33.17.

In the women's event the leading two were always in a race with Catherine holding onto her early lead and coming in just about a minute ahead of Kay. to set the new record at 39.28.

In the team event Esk Valley were comfortable winners with a welcome return from Nigel Tate and Tim Whitehead and Nick Wooley completing the team. In the women's event Esk Valley completed the double with Angela Dedman and Ruth Hodgson being the team members. Both on their first outing of the season - well done.

We managed to raise £240 for Cleveland Mountain Rescue and thanks to Esk Valley for donating the prizes. In the junior event AngusMcMillan won the U14 boys and Sam clapton the U12's.

Hope to see you at Cock Howe. Dave
