Comments:

Sunshine and showers was the forecast - we had the sunshine! It was relatively warm out there and at the front of the men's race it turned out to be a battle between Drew Inglis and Vic Brudenell. Drew had the lead for quite a time once the race settled down but Vic was never far behind and in the closing section Vic opened up a 20 metre lead but Drew came back at him so that at the line Vic just nicked it by less than a foot. In the following group Chris Jeffries , Paul Christon and Anthony Harnett had their own little battle or was it a club outing? Whatever Chris again got away in the closing stages. In the women's event it was the very experienced Sue Haslam who gave her all to finish ahead of Kath Aspin and Shelli Gordon. This allowed Kath to anchor New Marske Women's team to win the team competition from Esk Valley. In the men's team North York Moors were the winners at a canter with their 'B' team second ahead of Hartlepool and Esk Valley. The performances of the day appeared to me to be from the veteran pair from Hartlepool Burn Road who finished 8th & 10th with wins in the vet.55 and vet 60 categories.

Well done to all who took part in The Summer Series don't forget The Winter Series starts at The Viking Chase in two weeks hope to see you there as we are fund raising for 'Cleveland Search and Rescue' Please look on the web for my summary of the series and information about The winter and The New Junior Championship....
