Comments:

A fine brisk morning with little wind made for cracking racing conditions, the tale of tape saw Chris Roberts of Knavesmire Harriers just pipping George Foster (Ambleside) and Stuart Grange, unattached claiming third, all broke the previous course record.

In women's race not to be outdone by the men Scout Adkin also broke the course record and made it a double win for Knavesmire Harriers, claiming victory from Kath Aspin of New Marske Harriers and Ella Towers Unattached in third.

In the team competition, Knavesmire Harriers matched their overall wins with team victories for the men and women. In the women's race Scout was supported by Cassie Holmes (5th place) and Kate Smith (8th). Supporting Chris in the men's team and packing well were Giles Hawkings (16th), Barry Atkinson (17th) and Thomas Radcliffe (18th).

The Eureka was terrifically well supported with 130 signing up and finishing the race, profits of £500+ were donated to Cleveland Mountain Rescue Team who provided marshals and race support. Thank you to all my other helpers on the day.
