Comments:

Another excellent nights racing with cool weather on the tops and the last man in just before night fall. As a start let me please remind everyone going to the next race the venue is different to previous years! Check it out.

In this event Paul Butler went off at a startling pace followed by Nigel Tate, Will Horsley Simon Greenwood and Cameron Taylor. Paul managed to pull out a decent lead of about 20 seconds in the first half with pursuers still coming at him. In the later stages it was Nigel Tate who closed the gap to 27 seconds as they crossed the line. It was noticeable that the leading veteran men in Ken Maynard and Anthony Harnett made good ground in the latter stages.

In the women's event we had a very close contest between Kay Neesam and Katy Rawnsley. They were very close throughout the race with Kay gaining a lot of ground as they moved into the second part of the race. In the latter stages Katy came back at Kay to close within one second but Kay held on as they crossed the finish line.

In the team event it was Loftus and Whitby who won ahead of Sunderland Strollers with New Marske unable to complete a team. In the men's race it was almost impossible to check it out on the night due to time factors. The winners by just one point were North York Moors from Esk Valley Fell club with Loftus and Whitby just three points behind. A big vote of thanks to The Fox & Hounds for hosting and Bob Lillie for course control. See you at The Ossy hope you get the right venue. Dave
