Comments:

An unseasonable mild November day welcomed runners to the first of the Winter Series of 8 races with best 5 to count. There was mist on some parts of the Moor, but more later. The male top 5 was just about established by Percy Rigg, with only Paul Williams of home Club Esk Valley able to work his way through the field to 4th and pip Charlie Stead. Male and female winners Phil Sanderson and Michelle Tenwick made it quite clear on the first climb that their intentions were to win, Phil quoted as saying he was 'retired' was a clear winner by over a minute and Michelle by near 7. Despite the mild conditions. the course was still able to create some mischief, with a thick mist over Roseberry there was fun and games for many.

In the team events:- Mens; it was close call with York Knavesmire winning over Esk Valley, with Northumberland Fell Runners third. Women; Ripon Runners were the winners with Darlington second and North York Moors third.

Look forward to seeing you at the next event The 'Saltergate' from Levisham Village Hall. Please park responsibly!
