Comments:

The day began as cold, with temperatures overnight below freezing on the tops. At 8.50 Roseberry was clear apart from a mizzle but it was snowing on Highcliff and the higher points of the moor. It was disappointing as I arrived at The Rugby Club to find that someone had reneged on the arrangements about parking. This meant that runners had to park in the area around the venue and my apologies are given to runners. I will be writing to the club to ask what that was about, more particularly to remind them that they are given grants to be a community facility. Any way enough of that let's get on with the event. An entry of 229 plus 19 juniors and a few middle race runners meant that there were plenty to compete.

In the first junior race for Under 12,s there was a very close finish in the male section where Sam Clapton narrowly finished ahead of Archie Lowe by just 4 seconds with Elliott Hutchinson third. In the female section it was another good performance from Rebecca Aspin in first to finish ahead of the much younger Bethany Bergstrand.

In the Under 14's Tyler Hutchinson was a comfortable winner ahead of James Green in second. For the female under 14's Emma Clapton put in a superb run to finish first not far behind Tyler. Lucy Haines was second in this section.

In the Under 16,s Sam Garratt ran a brilliant race with excellent navigation skills to win from Tim Hunter. Sam could never completely relax once he headed the field as Tim was always within touching distance on a slightly different line over the moor. In the female section Alice Rigby proved a comfortable winner.

In the under 23 middle race Florence Haines had an excellent run with her sister Chloe finishing in second place. There were no male entrants as all of these chose the full race.

Moving to the main race which set off in dry weather, there was a great sense of anticipation as the runners set off. It was a very colourful sight with colours of every hue. The variation in footwear was noticeable with everything from light boots with ankle support to the dreaded road trainer, most however were appropriately shod.

Up the first climb Paul Butler shot off at top speed with Jim Bulman and Cameron J. Taylor in third. At the top of the first climb for the men there was still a line of about 20 runners all within 10 seconds of the leading athlete. As they approached Captain Cook's Jim had a short lead but only 10 seconds separated the top 13. The women's race at this point was equally tight with Kay Neesam just ahead of Karen Robertson locked in their own private dual. Snow was now driving at the runners and many therefore did not take drinks at the water station in Gribdale. Roseberry was now to be negotiated where you set off in great hope but have to dig really deep to get back up Little Roseberry. Jim proved to be very strong in this section and opened up a 20 second lead with Cameron and Paul still locked closely together. It was the long climb up to Highcliff that saw Cameron break away from Paul. At the finish the front three were well clear of the rest of the field with Jim a minute ahead of Cameron and Paul just 15 seconds behind Cameron.

In the Women's event it was so tight all the way that it was difficult to predict the eventual winner from the two leading women. Indeed it was Karen who just managed to hold off Kay by 8 seconds who took the victory.

The first 6 men achieved the gold standard of less than 90 minutes whilst just 3 women achieved their gold standard of less than 105 minutes. The silver and bronze standards for men are set at less than 100minutes and 110 minutes respectively. The silver and bronze standards for women are set at; less than 115 and 125 minutes respectively, so well done if you achieved those standards.

In the team event for men it was Northumberland Fell Runners fantastic packing that sealed their victory over Loftus & Whitby. In the female team event New Marske had even better packing than the NFR men to win comfortably from the Northumberland FR. women. If anyone was interested in how many teams finished we have only shown 16 male as it is only the first two teams that count but there were many more particularly from Northumberland FR and Esk Valley Fell Club.

In the season long team competition Pickering Women and Esk Valley Men look to have sealed their championships.

In the M40 Jim Bulman was a comfortable winner from Lee Bennett. Whilst Paul Butler was well clear of Joe McCready and Joe Blackett in the M45. In the M50 Anthony Harnett continued a good season ahead of David Armstrong. Whilst in the M55 Rob Pollard came through strongly on the last hill to push Steve Smith and Peter Haines into second and third. Sandy Presley won the M60 ahead of Robert Howard. In M65 Mike Hetherington held off Doug Welsh whilst in the M70 Ronnie Sherwood amazes us all with his strength.

In the women's F40 it was the two race leaders Karen and Kay whilst in the F45 Denise Tunstall had an excellent performance ahead of Claire Stewart and Alison Rolfe. In the F50 with every other family member mentioned it was Sarah Haines who finished ahead of Marie L Drozdowicz. In the F55 Sue Haslam again showed her pedigree to finish ahead of Gail Tombs and Sandra Jemson.

Hope to see you at the Fox & Hounds

Best wishes
Dave Parry

Please note that the up and coming Mid week series on Wednesday nights starts at Carlton Bank Top on 02/05/2012. 7.00pm start.
