Comments:

We had booked the weather which was pleasant although a little overcast. Paul Butler again shot out of the stalls like a greyhound and by the climb up Green Hill was comfortably in the lead being chased by a small group involving Charlie Stead, James Wilson and Cameron Taylor. Paul went on to win by two minutes setting another record. In fact Paul did almost three circuits that night checking the tapes at 4.00p.m. & collecting most of the tapes after the race.

In the women's event Kay Neesam scored her eighth win of the series in her age category & her fourth outright win of the season. Nicola Kent did run her close for most of the race but Kay just managed that extra bit of speed from the moor down to the finish.

In the team competition North York Moors through excellent packing were comfortable winners over Loftus & Whitby. In the women's team New Marske Harriers returned to winning ways ahead of Sunderland Strollers. In the series team event North York Moors are now emerging as favourites unless Esk Valley and Loftus can put in excellent team work in the last two events. Don't forget to pre enter Castleton Show so you can get free entry into the showground.....
