Comments:

A wonderful inaugural event where the weather looked pleasant but there was a bite in the wind. It was a joy to see a junior man winning the race, with Cameron Taylor of Esk Valley recording his first ever senior victory - well done 'Cam'. Cameron was in the lead just a few yards after the start and held on to the finish although he had never previously been round the route. The chasers were Ian McGrath, Chris Judge, Andy Normandale and Barry Atkinson. In the last half of the race experience was telling seeing Andy move up to second with Barry third.

In the women's event Kay Neesam went hard from the start to maintain her excellent vein of form and come in over two minutes clear of Caroline Warrington in second place. Kim England of Esk Valley had an excellent run in her first Hill Race to finish fourth.

In the men's team event York Acorn gained revenge over Esk Valley after only finishing third at Carlton. The tea and cakes provided by the village Hall were not to be missed and we are thinking of using this facility as the start of the Saltergate in October as there is now a parking charge at Saltergate Bank Top and this venue is extremely civilised!.

Hope to see you all at The Fox and Hounds.... Best Wishes - David Parry
