Comments:

Lockton on the southern edge of the North Yorkshire Moors played host to the second event in the Dave Parry Lets Run Winter Fell Race Series 2021/22, with 131 competitors putting their toe to the start line. It was an Esk Valley Fell Club one-two on the day with Lee Kemp nosing ahead of Steve Donaldson on the final climb to the finish line who claimed victory in a course record time, after the duo dropped the competition in their race long battle. Steve also bettered the old record set by Jayson Cavill in the 2019 edition of the race. Esk Valley Fell Club who fielded 12 runners, eased to victory in the men's team competition with 6th place for Thomas Naisby and 7th for Chris Vanderhoven. Third place went to first under 23 runner Jack Mudd-Bowes and first veteran was claimed by Tim Grimwood, Swaledale Runners in fourth.

In the women's race Rose Mather of York Knavesmire Harriers raced to victory just ahead of Claire Duck Leeds City AC, Claire was a last minute entry having seen the race whilst holidaying in the area. Rhona Marshall of Scarborough AC claimed the final place of the podium and first veteran runner home, Jessica Slater (4th) and Aoife Burke (8th) made up the winning women's team and Rebecca Dent of Scarborough was first women's under 23. Thanks must go to Nic Cousins race organiser, the event support team from Pickering Running Club and Lockton community for providing parking. Next event in the series is Saltergate Gallows (now a BL) on 14 November.
