Comments:

Another wonderful night for running with sunshine and a bit of cloud but a gentle SW breeze. There was a large group of runners at the front with Paul Butler leading and Dan Middlemas, Charlie Stead, Will Horsley, Chris Jeffries, Cameron Taylor and Simon Greenwell making up the bunch. This chevron formation persisted with small changes with Paul leading out until they climbed back up to The Signal Station.

At the point of 'route choice,' runners went in every direction. Unfortunately for some, some routes were rougher than others and Paul came back with more blood visible than anyone else! Bramble bashers were essential on the shortest route. Paul came in overall winner from his club colleague Dan forming the base of the Loftus and Whitby team win over NYMAC and Esk Valley. In third was Gary Webb showing his strength and experience of route choice in the latter stages. Cameron went on to win the Junior Men's section with Mark Libby in second.

In the women's event the leading contenders were Katy Rawnsley and Kay Neesam renewing the Fox and Hounds contest of two weeks ago. This time it was Katy who managed to get clear of Kay in the middle of the race and go on to win. Katy was supported by Sue and Rhona Haslam to give Scarborough a comfortable win in the team event. Many thanks to Cameron and Ernie Huck for course marking and marshalling respectively. See you at Whorlton ..... Dave
